The Card, Call, Visit or Prayer

These four invitations, calls of the Gospel if you will, can be great ways to motivate and encourage one another.

A few years ago, I was visiting one of our PSR (Parish School of Religion) classes and I asked, "Who encourages us to encourage each other, to motivate one another by sending a card to the sick, suffering, hospitalized or lonely person or it could be a call for the same powerful reasons or a visit. I'll be talking a little later in the article of a visit to a brother Knight we all know and love, with two of our brother Knights from Church of the Ascension. I'm going to ask each of you reading this article to think about someone in your life, in your family, , or from work or a fellow K of C member or someone in their family – someone who could greatly benefit – from your encouragement and or motivation. Then as you ponder, think of the old bumper sticker (one of my personal favorites), "Just Do It".

To get back to the PSR class, I asked, "Who is it that encourages and motivates each one of us to send the card, make the call, get someone to go with you and "go out" on the call and to offer the prayer? Immediately a hand went up and one of our urchins said, "Fr. Reichert". "Right you are", I replied, "but who else? I'll give you a clue, we talk about Him at every Mass." After a lot of encouragement, they figured it out. I was talking about Jesus.

In regards to our visit to a Brother Knight, Mark Steele –two of our brother Knights, Sir Knight Don Litterini, Sir Knight Don Vocca and I, had a great visit with Sir Knight Mark Steele and his dear wife on the 30th of June. He looks great, but has a long way to go on his road to recovery. God bless him.

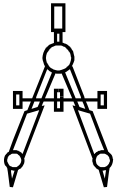

About a year ago, after a lot of encouragement from neighboring St. Vincent de Paul Societies and a generous amount of encouragement and motivation from Deacon Bill Andrews, the Ascension Church St. Vincent de Paul Society was formed. Did you ever notice how many times in Holy Writ, Jesus sends His disciples out two by two? We follow His recommendation in our St. Vincent de Paul Society, as do others. Why, you may ask? Well to continue to motivate and encourage one another. It's really a great plan. Every Thursday – between 3:00 and 4:00 p.m. a fellow church member to an entire family, picks me up and we go "on calls". I'm going to recommend you do the same.

By now, each of you has someone in mind. You could make their day, not only by doing what Fr. Reichert is asking you to do, but what our dear Lord Himself is inviting and encouraging each of us to do. Send the card, make the call, offer the prayer and then ask someone to go with you and make the visit. Make someone's day in the name of Jesus Christ and I'll guarantee you, in the process, your day will be "made" as well.

God bless each of you as you prepare to "go out" in the name of the Lord.

Much love and prayers,

Fr. J.L. Reichert

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Don Vocca for his leadership this past year. Also, thanks to all of the officers for their efforts and sacrifices in assuring the Assembly runs properly and to the Ladies who make the monthly meetings much more pleasant. It is very important to any organization that people step up to take leadership roles and our Assembly has been blessed with dedicated men and ladies who have given of their time to insure the success of this group. Don, you have finally reached the title many of us strive for, Past Faithful Navigator – congratulations Don!

As I start this year as Faithful Navigator, I thank God that I have such dedicated people to assist me in this position. I know that without your encouragement, support and your prayers I would not have been able to take on this responsibility. I know I will be relying on all of the members of our Assembly for support in continuing to achieve the goals of the 4th Degree and those of Monsignor J Colby Grimes Assembly.

I realize the time commitment it takes to participate in the activities of the Assembly as we are all, hopefully, active members of our Councils. I pray that we can continue to find time to be the “visible arm” of the Knights of Columbus and participate, as a group, in patriotic events and Honor Guards for our fallen Brothers and Sisters.

Thank you again for your continued support. I am looking forward to working with the elected officers, Sir Knights and Ladies of Monsignor J Colby Grimes Assembly. Please feel free to contact me at any time to discuss ideas, issues, and events or just to say “hi”.
